TWO WOMEN STRANGLER

Couple of Murder Mysteries at New York City.

THOUGHT DEEDS OF A MAN

Police Hold to the Theory That the Bloodthirsty Individual Who Committed the First Crime Likewise Choked to Death the Second Unfortunate.

New York, July 30.—The bodies of two women with marks upon their throats, indicating strangling, were found within twelve hours, and the police believe one man committed both crimes. Neither of the victims has been identified. One of the women was found dead in an area way early Tuesday with marks of a thumb and forefinger visible on the throat, and her face and neck smeared with blood. She was about twenty-seven years old. No one in the neighborhood heard sounds of a struggle.

The body of the other woman was found Monday night in a Twenty-second street boarding house. The woman went to the house with a man who gave his name as Davis. Her body was found in the room the couple had occupied. A necktie had been knotted tightly around her throat and she had been dead when found for several hours. Blood vessels in her neck were broken and the woman's clothing was drenched with blood. No trace of the man, who had the appearance of a foreigner, has been found.

ALABAMA'S SON BURIED.

Beside Other Noble Dead Lies Body of E. W. Pettus.

Selma, July 30.—The funeral of the late United States Senator Pettus, who died Saturday night at Hot Springs, N. C., took place Tuesday afternoon from his late residence here. Interment was in Live Oak cemetery, where less than two months ago his late colleague, Senator Morgan, was laid to rest, and where also sleeps Vice President William R. King and many other notable Alabamians.

Senator Pettus' funeral was attended with the greatest honors ever paid an Alabama citizen. It was the first time in the history of the state the entire legislature paid its last tribute to a native son. In addition to the lawmakers there were also present Governor Comer and members of his staff, former Governor Johnston, who succeeds General Pettus in the senate, and various state officials. In addition to thousands of citizens, who thronged to the city to pay their tribute of love to the dead senator, who spent the best years of his honored life here.

There were over 700 members of the Alabama National guard in the procession to the city of the dead.

The funeral train reached Selma at 7 o'clock Tuesday morning. At 8 o'clock the march from the station to the historic home of the dead senator, was taken up. The remains were escorted by the Second Infantry of National Guard, in camp here. When the home was reached the casket was carried into the parlor, where floral emblems were banked about it. The house was then thrown open to those who desired to take a last look at the face of the distinguished dead and thousands marched past the bier.

TURPENTINE DANGEROUS.

Claimed That Pure Article Cooks Cotton to Crisp.

Baton Rouge, July 30.—From the state crop pest commission, experimenting with turpentine as a possible eradicator of the boll weevil, it is learned that results so far indicate that its use is dangerous. The experiment was conducted because planters about Coushatta gave wide publicity to the claim that a turpentine and water soaked cloth drawn over the ground had practically driven all the weevils from the cotton without hurting the plant. The odor was supposed to drive out the weevil. The commission found that pure turpentine, when burned, turned to a crisp in about twenty-four hours, and its odor disappeared in forty-eight hours. A mixture of turpentine and water was tried. It was found the two would not mix, the turpentine gathering in drops, which burned the plants wherever it came in contact.

NO BAIL FOR PETTIBONE.

Moyer's Bond Signed by President of First National Bank.

Boise, Idaho, July 30.—Formal application was made in the district court to have George A. Pettibone admitted to bail. The motion was submitted without argument and promptly denied by Judge Wood. The bond of Charles H. Moyer was signed by Timothy Reagan, president of the First National bank of Boise. The bond is guaranteed by $25,000 cash on deposit by Butte lodge of the Western Federation of Miners.

MAJOR HUNTINGTON DIES

Passes Away After the Tragic Events of Sunday.

HENRY SEEKS TO SUICIDE.

Ties Silk Handkerchief to Bar of Cell and Other End Around His Neck and Was Slowly Strangling to Death, but Attempt on Life Stopped.

Versailles, July 30.—The death of the aged American soldier himself, and an attempt at self-destruction on the part of his son, Henry, who shot his sisters and brothers on Sunday in the last hours of his dying father, imparted additional sadness Monday to the shocking tragedy in the home of Major Henry A. Huntington, which has caused a sensation in the American colony and diplomatic circles of France.

Major Huntington died Monday evening shortly after the news was given out of his son Henry's unsuccessful attempt at suicide, but the father was spared the anguish of the knowledge that both this incident and the terrible crime which shattered his household, as he was unconscious to the end.

The prostrated wife and daughter, Edith and his son Douglas whose slight wounds permitted them to pay the last honors to the dying man, were present in the chamber when the end came.

According to the police, Henry attempted suicide in his cell with a silk handkerchief, which he tied around his neck and fastened to the bars, seeking to strangle himself slowly. The jailer who had been instructed to watch the prisoner closely, detected the act in time to prevent serious results and it was announced that Henry had not succeeded in injuring himself.

Henry immediately calmed down and made no objection to being led away. He was quiet and only asked to be allowed to tell his wife what had occurred before being lodged in jail.

It was learned that there is insanity in the Huntington family. Major Huntington's brother died in a madhouse suffering from delusions somewhat similar to those of which Henry is possessed.

Many members of the American colony in Paris, including Ambassador White and Consul General Mason, called at the Huntington residence to express sympathy and offer their services.

Henry Huntington's wife, as well as her father and mother, were summoned from Paris and appeared before the examining magistrate here, who took down their statements. Henry's wife, in an interview, persisted in her statement that the rupture between Henry and the other members of his family was complete. The trouble, she said, dated from the last anniversary dinner of her marriage. She declares that on this occasion her sisters-in-law spoke ill of her to her husband.

When Henry returned to his hotel, after the tragedy he told his wife he was crying at the bedside of his father when his brother Douglas and his sisters interrupted him and insisted that he beg for his mother's pardon. He then lost his head and fired indiscriminately. "I can never forget," Mrs. Huntington went on, "that my husband broke with his family rather than permit me to be insulted in his presence."

Henry, when he went to his brother's residence Sunday, at once became excited and continued to speak violently and loudly. The members of the family gathered around him and tried to persuade him to go into the drawing room and talk the question over there. This he would not do, but in a loud voice he insisted that the only way to cure his father was to administer the blood of a dog mixed with sea water, a remedy which he had invented. Tiring of his persistence, his brother, Douglas, finally opened the door of the bed room and said: "I am the oldest and I ask you to leave and not return."

Edith Huntington also abjured her brother to depart and not create further disturbance. They then began pushing Henry towards the door. Suddenly he whipped a revolver from his pocket and fired point blank at Douglas. The bullet grazed the older brother's temple and he fell to the floor stunned. Henry then turned his pistol on Alonzo and fired a second time. The bullet pierced Alonzo's lungs and this brother dropped. The two girls, Elizabeth and Edith, then rushed forward in frantic despair trying desperately to put an end to the shooting. Henry shot Edith through the arm and then placing the revolver against Elizabeth's breast he pulled the trigger for the fourth time.

In the meantime one of the guards of the Versailles park, who happened to be in the kitchen downstairs, accompanied by the household servants, hurried upstairs, rushed into the room and wrenched the revolver from the hands of the madman.

It is alleged that watered stock companies are impossible under the new incorporation act.

The correspondent who is sending out heat stories from McGregor deserves a bath in cracked ice and a pitcher of frozen buttermilk.

Texas Women, published in Dallas, has a timely article on the tendency of many ladies of both cities and smaller towns, to overdress when they go shopping, just as if they were going to some elaborate social affair.

The management of the Texas State Fair at Dallas is getting busy with preparations for the big annual event which comes off this year October 19 to November 3 inclusive. This fair has long since passed the problematic stage and is a fixture of continual growth and popularity. It has come to be more than a fair; it is a regularly recurring exposition of the empire state of Texas.

Commenting upon the spectacle of the fallen boss of San Francisco in tears and making confession, the Call of that city says: "The end of Ruef is the beginning of decency. During his time of activity law has been a mockery and justice a byword in San Francisco for big rogues with little money and little rogues with a pull. It is dramatically fitting that he should be among the first to prove on the pillory that in the end, soon or late, the fundamental agreement of organized society as to the conduct of men, the agreement upon which all human law is based, will be inexorably enforced."

DRUGGISTS

AFTER POWDER PEOPLE.

Government Sues Several Firms and Individuals.

Washington, July 30.—The government here filed in the United States circuit court for the district of Delaware at Wilmington, a petition against E. L. Dupont, Denemours & Co., the E. L. Dupont Denemours Powder Company of New Jersey and twenty-four other corporations and seventy-two individuals connected with twenty-six corporations, which are made defendants in the petition. The petition relates that all defendants are engaged in interstate trade and commerce in gunpowder and other high explosives and violating the act of July 2, 1890, commonly known as the Sherman anti-trust law. It seeks to prevent and restrain unlawful existing agreements, contracts, combines and conspiracies in restraint of such trade and commerce, to prevent and restrain attempts on part of the defendants to monopolize such trade and commerce and to dissolve existing monopolies therein.

Action at Wilmington.

Wilmington, Del., July 30.—The United States government began suit against the so-called powder trust in the United States circuit court here. The government asks that the Dupont Company of Delaware be restrained from exercising control over subsidiary companies. The papers in the case were filed by Assistant Attorney General Purdy. Subpoenas were issued returnable the first Monday in September.

HAYWOOD'S RETURN.

Great Demonstration Is to Be Made on Arrival at Denver.

Denver, July 30.—Secretary-Treasurer Haywood's return to Denver will be made the occasion of a great demonstration in this city by the Western Federation of Miners and other labor organizations. The date of his arrival has not yet been announced, but he is expected to arrive the last of this week. Arrangements are already being made to run special trains from Cripple Creek and other places to bring members of the Federation and others to Denver to join in celebration of Haywood's acquittal at Boise. It is announced that one feature of the celebration will be a parade of Federation members, the first in this city in three years.

Telegrams of congratulation on the result of the Boise trial were received today at the Federation headquarters in this city from all parts of the country and abroad.

Some of Haywood's union co-workers are proclaiming him the logical candidate for the presidency on the socialist ticket. As candidate for governor of Colorado last year when in prison in Idaho he received 16,338 votes.

Cotton Thirty Days Late.

Oklahoma City, July 30.—"Cotton in Oklahoma is thirty days late, but in good condition at the present time," said Albert R. Kirk, a local cotton dealer. "Cotton, like corn, would be considerably benefited by a little rain, but the crop outlook has vastly improved during the past thirty days."

Rev. Jas. A. Challenor returned yesterday from the San Gabriel, near Thordale, where he has just closed a successful revival meeting, with twenty-seven additions to the church. There were some four hundred campers on the grounds, and two thousand people attended the meeting Sunday. The meeting closed Sunday night, having continued a week, and Rev. Challenor remained by request to deliver a lecture Monday night.

Roll call at the jail Monday would have revealed the presence of fifteen prisoners, most of them negro boys rounded up by the local officers in connection with petty theft charges. This sort of thing has been going on for some time in Bryan, and a number of articles have been recovered. The officers intend to break it up and have been very alert lately.

The Farmers' Union Warehouse committee held a meeting here yesterday, but owing to the fact that the title to the land in the northern part of town has not yet passed, no steps were taken to let the contract for the warehouse building, and another meeting will be held Saturday. The funds have been subscribed for building.

MRS. THAW'S PLANS.

Report Is Harry's Wife Will Go Back to the Stage.

New York, July 30.—According to a report circulated, Mrs. Evelyn Nesbit Thaw intends to return to the stage this fall, despite the objections of her husband and his lawyers. At the office of Daniel O'Reilly, one of Thaw's counsel, a member of the firm said the report was not true.

According to rumors in circulation Mrs. Thaw has been taking lessons from Carl Blennerman for some time past, and has admitted to friends that she is preparing to take part in a Broadway production in the near future. It is now said that when Mrs. Thaw returns to the stage, it will not be as a chorus girl, but she will have a prominent part. Daniel O'Reilly and Russell Peabody, Thaw's lawyers, and Mrs. William Thaw, mother of the young millionaire, it is reported, have been bitterly opposed to Evelyn's going on the stage, but the younger Mrs. Thaw, it is said, does not believe it would have a detrimental effect on her husband's next trial if she returns to the stage.

The second hearing of the famous murder case will probably come up at the September term of the criminal court.

DECLARED FALSE.

Harry Thaw Indignant at Report of Wife's Going Back to Stage.

New York, July 30.—The following signed statement was made Tuesday by Harry K. Thaw at the tomb to the Associated Press regarding the report that his wife intended returning to the stage:

"This story, like many others, is absolutely false, and has been started, I believe, for one of two reasons: Either to give a false impression of my wife's character and steadfastness, with the cowardly intention of injuring us, or simply to fill space. H. K. T."

DECISION RESERVED.

Justice Williams Hears Application Against Land Commissioner.

Austin, July 30.—Associate Justice Williams of the supreme court heard the application of Relator W. B. Munson against Land Commissioner Terrell et al., for a temporary writ of injunction to restrain the commissioner from selling 1,280 acres of land on Mustang island, which was originally granted to "Big Foot" Wallace. Munson wants Commissioner Terrell restrained until petition for mandamus to compel Commissioner Terrell to issue patent to land, now pending in supreme court, is determined. Judge Williams reserved his decision.

Lieutenant Governor Davidson had a conference with railroad commission and attorney general regarding the injunction of the Galveston, Harrisburg and San Antonio railway against the commission, restraining the commission from putting into effect the order requiring the road to put in operation double passenger service from Houston to San Antonio. It was decided to move to dissolve the temporary writ, which has been granted by Judge Brooks.

J. S. GRINNAN DEAD.

To Stop Piles Try This.

Piles get instant relief, when Dr. Shoop's Magic Ointment is applied. It's a Pile Cure, remember, and it is good for nothing else whatever except piles. General Ointments, for many uses, can't possibly cure piles. A pile ointment must be specific. Every aim of its maker must be directed specifically toward piles alone. Says Dr. Shoop, "I make three valuable ointments, and yet, one only—Dr. Shoop's Magic Ointment—will bring help to pile sufferers." Even then, in old chronic cases, originating because of a torpid liver, with biliousness, I prescribe my Dr. Shoop's Restorative internally while using Magic Ointment locally or externally. Keep in mind this fact, please, that the large blood vessels of the liver originate in the walls of the rectum, where piles arise. Obstruct these vessels in the liver and piles instantly appear. Dr. Shoop's Restorative corrects stomach and liver sluggishness, hence its value as an aid to Magic Ointment in the treatment of obstinate cases of piles. None genuine without Dr. Shoop's name on the package. Sold at 50 cents by

Weak Women

To weak and ailing women, there is at least one way to help. But with that way, two treatments must be combined. One is local, one is constitutional, but both are important, both essential. Dr. Shoop's Restorative is wholly an internal treatment. The Restorative reaches throughout the entire system, seeking the repair of all nerve, all tissue, and all blood ailments. The "Night Cure", as its name implies, does its work while you sleep. It soothes sore and inflamed mucous surfaces, heals local weaknesses and discharges, while the Restorative, eases nervous excitement, gives renewed vigor and ambition, builds up wasted tissues, bringing about renewed strength, vigor, and energy. Take Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—as a general tonic to the system. For positive local help, use as well

Weak Kidneys

Weak Kidneys, surely point to weak kidney nerves. The kidneys, like the heart, and the stomach, find their weakness, not in the organ itself, but in the nerves that control and guide and strengthen them. Dr. Shoop's Restorative is a medicine specifically prepared to reach these controlling nerves. To doctor the kidneys alone, is futile. It is a waste of time, and of money as well. If your back aches or is weak, if the urine smells, or is dark and strong, if you have symptoms of Bright's or other distressing or dangerous kidney disease, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative a month. Tablets or Liquid—and see what it can and will do for you. Druggist recommended and sell.

S. H. FRANKLIN

THERE is no fairer country or more delightful climate on earth than that of Colorado during the heated term.

Hundreds of places of interest to the sight-seer engage his attention and interest him, while at the same time he is fanned by cooling breezes, rich in life-giving ozone, fresh from the realms of perpetual snow.

The entire State is a mass of picturesque scenery, affording an endless delight to those who are interested in the sublime vagaries of Nature, for in Colorado Nature seems to have exhausted herself in the production of the sublime and beautiful.

The lofty peaks of the famed Rockies, forming the "Continental Divide," tower skyward and stretch away, snow-capped, in the wonderful vista.

ON every side there is something to interest and inspire the beholder; the richest gold-producing mines on earth are there, and a visit to them will never be forgotten.

In addition to such renowned resorts as Colorado Springs, Boulder, Glenwood Springs, Denver, etc. Colorado has innumerable other points of equal interest and attraction, each affording distinctive features of its own, and each, alone, being worth far more than the cost of transportation to the state to see.

Visit Colorado now, "the land of gold," "the land of health" and the land of glorious scenery. Hotels are legion, and the vacationist can always find accommodation at a price to suit his pocket book.

The principal points of interest are quickly and conveniently reached via "The Denver Road," the great thoroughfare to "Cool Colorado."
